DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 1 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 8, Applicant's amendment to claim 7 by requiring the pressure exerting means to be of the same material as the edge strip member renders claim 8 indefinite as claim 8 requires the two members to have a different hardness. If a material has a different hardness, particularly in polymers, one having ordinary skill in the art would not necessarily recognize the two materials of differing hardness as identical as hardness in polymers is generally affected via processes altering the chemical structure.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

6. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

7. Claims 1, 4-5, and 7-8 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hibble (WO 2004/030790) and further in view of Junker et al. (USP 5,599,446).

Regarding claims 1, 4-5, and 7-8 Hibble discloses in figures 8 and 10 a method and device for fixedly joining a cloth like fabric to a filter plate (abstract/title) comprising:

A filter cloth (72)

An edge strip attached to the filter cloth having an elongate body extending therealong having means for engaging a complementary part of a frame member (92/94)

Pressure exerting means for pressing said body into said complementary part wherein the pressure exerting means is separate from the elongate body, adapted to act as a wedging member in the channel of the frame in a removable manner made of a similar material to the edge strip and has a different hardness (96/98).

Wherein the edge strip member is formed from a material selected from a rubber (P11/L28-30).

The edge strip is sewn or welded to the filter cloth (P8/L30-32).

Hibbler is silent as to the requirement for the edge strip member to sandwich between two flaps the filter cloth.

Junker discloses in figure 2 sandwiching a filter cloth between two flaps.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify the edge strips of Hibbler by utilizing the sandwich construction of Junker for the purpose of providing equal support on both sides of the filter cloth edge to reduce breakage due to flow.

Conclusion

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
